The Right Man to Vote For.

John Brough, the Union candidate for Governor in Ohio, recently defined his position in the following manner: "It is scarcely necessary for me to tell this vast audience here assembled, that from the days of my boyhood up to this hour, I have been ranked with the political party known as 'the Democracy,' and that from my entrance into it until now I have never wavered in its support or been false to it. I am in party distinctions, and all things pertaining to the general policy of the country, a Democrat to-day, as I ever have been and as I hope to remain. But in a crisis of this kind, it is a principle of my Democracy that the first great duty every man owes is to his country. And although there is a President in the chair to whom I have ever been politically opposed, and for whom I did not vote, yet I recognize him not as the head of a political party, but as the head of the Government; and as a good soldier who is fighting in the ranks, it is my duty to obey him as Commander-in-Chief, without halting to ask questions in regard to this great contest. By and by I may have something to say of what is being done, but at present I have nothing to say against it. I have differed from Mr. Lincoln on many questions, but this is no time to cavil. It is not whether this man's rights or that man's rights have been infringed upon, but the question is, what is the duty of every man to his country in this crisis? It is first to put an end to this rebellion, and then when that is accomplished, if we have anything to settle with the men at home and in power, then we will take hold of it."

Now, if any man professing to be a loyal Democrat, can prefer the election of Vallandigham to that of Mr. Brough, or if he is in Ohio, would vote for the prince of Copperheads when he might support the patriot who puts his country above his party, we have only to say that we fear that the profession of loyalty is hollow. Indeed we are sure that no loyal citizen could under any circumstances, conceivable by any possibility, consent to support a traitor, who like Vallandigham has expressed such cordial hate and malicious intentions towards the Government, and has to the utmost of his ability endeavored to weaken it and to strengthen the rebellion.

Up Country News.—The following items from the Golden Age are condensed by the Mountaineer:

A man who spent the last winter near Lewiston, engaged in rafting logs, has one of the best claims in the Boise country. He and his two partners have twenty yeast boxes filled with gold, the result of their summer's work.

The Elk City mines are paying handsomely. They average all the way from $10 to $100 a day to the hand. There is a great demand for hands at $6 per day.

At Florence City there is a difficulty between the miners and the Ditch Company. The former want water at fifty cents an inch, and the latter demand one dollar. The result is the miners have suspended working their claims, and are engaged in building a bridge on their own account.

Postmaster Downer has contracted for a weekly mail between Lewiston and Elk City.

A worthless fellow has been convicted at Oro Fino of selling liquor to Indians.

The Boise hegira has carried off nearly all the old residents of Lewiston, and the place is nearly deserted.

Governor Wallace has ordered the U. S. Marshal for Idaho to proceed at once to take the census of the Territory. This will be completed in six weeks or two months, after which judicial districts will be established, and an election ordered for members of the Territorial Legislature.

Governor Wallace was handsomely received at Lewiston, and escorted to the Luna House, after which he immediately entered upon the duties of his office.

Gen. McClernand at Vicksburg.—Some of the accounts of the main assault upon the rebel works at Vicksburg have alluded to Gen. McClernand's disobedience of orders as a prime cause of the failure of Gen. Grant's plans. A writer gives the following explanation:

Gen. McClernand on Friday sent a dispatch to Gen. Grant, saying he had taken three of the enemy's forts in front and asked for reinforcements, saying he was hard pressed. Gen. Quimby's division was sent to him, and he was ordered to press the enemy vigorously. It subsequently transpired that the forts were never taken by McClernand. He expected to take them, sent a dispatch announcing their capture, made his intended assault and was repulsed. The affair cost us about 1,000 men. Gen. Grant never would have allowed this sacrifice had he not been misinformed. The removal of McClernand was seriously contemplated, if report can be believed; but he still retains command. Gen. McClernand was put under arrest for a few days after the affair, but as it caused dissatisfaction among the Illinois volunteers he was released and ordered to resume his command. He has since been removed from his command.

Letter from Boise Mines.

Placerville, Idaho Terr., July 5, 1863.

Editor Oregonian.

We have been informed that Byron M. Smith, Esq., has been appointed Provost Marshal for the Territory of Idaho, and now look for his coming with much anxiety. Previous to his leaving the settlements below, I think he will display commendable prudence by getting a miniature edition of one of Ericsson's turrets for a helmet, with the full allowance of breast-plates and step-plates; as certain parties in this country have threatened to "lift his hair," if he becomes officious in his official capacity. I consider the position of Provost Marshal as no sinecure in this Territory. Yes, tell Mr. Byron M. Smith to be sure and come in an iron-clad suit, if he would be safe in these diggings.

NEW MILITARY POST.

Maj. Lugenbeel has located the new Fort Boise at a point twenty-five miles from the mouth of Boise, on that stream. The distance from Placerville is thirty miles. Col. Maury has not arrived yet, with his battalion of Oregon Cavalry.

THE BOYS ON THE ROAD.

Reports come into the diggings, frequently, of the doings of "the boys on the road," but no robberies of any magnitude have been committed. Quite a number of these gentry have been killed during the past season; and the work goes steadily on. "The boys" are out of luck, it appears.

THE MINES—HOW THEY ARE PAYING.

The scarcity of water has stopped the operations on many claims in the dry gulches and on the terrace adjoining the creeks; but the creek claims have just commenced paying and are yielding well. Difficulty is experienced in finding laborers at $5 a day, without board, about Placerville and Centerville; but I am informed that there are many idle men about Bannock City.

Whenever a man arrives in the mines, he is at once told that Bannock City is the place; whereupon he incontinently rushes over there—hears that John Smith is making $1,000 a day—hunts for a similarly rich claim—doesn't find it—goes on a spree—gets whipped, very likely—and at last makes up his mind that the mines are a bilk. At the very same time there are plenty of opportunities for him to make money at the other towns in the basin, or out in the hills, away from all of them.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

The Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence passed off very quietly—scarcely a drunken man being seen, and none of the usual observances of the day. This cannot scarcely be attributed to the lack of love for our country; but to another cause. A public celebration would have thrown the incongruous mass our population together, and possibly given rise to unpleasant discussions: so it is better that it is as it is.

A STARTLING RUMOR.

This community was thrown into a spasmodic state of excitement, yesterday, by a rumor that Long Tom had bursted out into a rebellion—captured, burnt and fortified Eugene City—taken Gov. Gibbs prisoner, and done several other acts against the peace, dignity, etc., of Oregon. It was not generally believed, but served to enliven an hour, spent in analyzing the report, and tracing it to no foundation whatever.

INDIAN MASSACRE ON THE SOUTH SALMON.

The bodies of a party of five persons, including a woman, were found on the waters of South Salmon by a prospecting party, some weeks ago. It is supposed that there was a child in the party, as a child's clothes were found with the other remains. I forward you copies of some papers found with the bodies; asking you to publish them in full, or make a minute of their contents and the names mentioned so that the party may be identified, and the relations of the murdered people be informed of these facts. The bodies were far advanced in decomposition.

VERY RICH QUARTZ.

I have just been shown by G. Collier Robbins, once the Mayor of Portland, with a host of friends—who abandoned him, mostly, in the days of his misfortune—some extremely rich quartz-rock, from his claim in the Pioneer ledge. The gold exists in flakes, globules, slugs, plugs, nuggets, scales—in hard quartz, decomposed quartz, and "cab"-rock; and in quantities to make this greenbacked generation's mouth water. There are many who will not be pleased to hear of G. Collier's good fortune, and there are others who will; among the latter you may place the undersigned.

HAL.

The New Reforms in Russia.—Although the Emperor of Russia appears to be waging a merciless war against the Poles, the civil reforms in his empire are going on. The imperial ukase recently issued concerning corporal punishments completely exempts women and some classes of individuals "among whom civilization is most extended," as, for example, teachers of primary schools; persons who have finished their education in district colleges and other schools; peasants exercising elective functions; and lastly, curates of parishes. The nobility and the merchants of the two first guilds have for some time been exempt from corporal punishment. The peasants and bourgeois who do not belong to the categories thus enumerated will only be subject to the lighter corporal punishments in certain cases specified by law. The knout and the plet are definitely erased from the penal code. The other punishments are sensibly diminished. Analogous modifications are introduced in the penal code of the army and navy. "The soldiers and sailors newly incorporated, and those of old standing who have been distinguished up to this time by good conduct, will not be subject to corporal punishment except under the decree of a tribunal, and the power of the officers is sensibly limited in relation to the punishment of sailors and soldiers." The punishment of whipping by rods, and of the kochki in the marine are definitely abolished.

The London correspondent of the N. Y. Times closes a letter as follows:

End the war in the only way you have thought of ending it, within the year, or it will be ended for you. You will be obliged to end it in a way you have not deemed possible, or to merge it in a greater war, the end of which cannot be so readily predicted.

True, but not Complimentary.—In Saturday's Tribune Mr. Greeley says:

Orson S. Murray is widely known as an original, extreme and uncompromising Abolitionist. Like most men of his school, he regards every one who does not see exactly as he does as a knave or fool—oftener both—and treats him accordingly."

The N. Y. Times says that "a soldier never should be a politician." The Louisville Journal replies—"The politicians seem generally to think that they should never be soldiers."

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to July 12th.

New York, July 10.—The steamer George Washington, from New Orleans July 4th, has arrived. No news from Port Hudson. The siege continues, but nothing further is known. No public assemblies are allowed in New Orleans except for public worship.

Washington, July 10.—Meade's and Lee's armies, at last accounts were five or six miles apart. Skirmishing between the outposts was going on.

New York, July 11.—A special dispatch to the Tribune, dated Headquarters Army of the Potomac, July 10th, says vigorous artillery and cavalry fight took place this morning over Antietam Creek, preparatory to the great expected conflict. The cavalry and artillery of Buford's division, aided by Kilpatrick's, operating on the left flank of Ewell, dislodged him last evening from the village of Beansville, on the road from Boonsboro' to Hagerstown, driving him two miles beyond Beaver Creek. This morning sharp skirmishing continued with equal fierceness, until the enemy retired to a strong position near Funkstown. The enemy will make a vigorous stand. To cross a portion of their forces would enable our army to attack them with every advantage and they will probably risk a great battle, taking the chances of victory or destruction.

6 P. M.—The utmost energy now prevails in the Army of the Potomac. A deserter who came into our lines last night, says Lee has a bridge across the Potomac at Williamsport and has succeeded in getting over ammunition and supplies, although he could not move his artillery with safety. He reports that Lee is now entrenched, and has artillery placed ready to give us battle whenever we attack. He thinks Lee has about 50,000 effective men. They are still full of confidence and think it was about an even thing at Gettysburg. The men of the rebel army had not heard of the capture of Vicksburg. Lee is evidently driven to the wall and will fight to the bitter end.

Gen. Meade says to destroy or capture an army of 50,000 is a most serious undertaking, and the result will not be determined by human might alone. At 10 A. M. this morning the enemy held the right of Hagerstown and our forces the left. At 2.20 P. M. heavy and rapid cannonading opened on the rebels, and continued one hour, resulting only in driving them from the works.

Washington, July 10th.—Rumors are rife here that Beauregard has passed down the Shenandoah valley with 40,000 men to reinforce Lee.

Antietam Bridge, July 11th.—Our cavalry have forced the rebel advance back to Funkstown.

New York, July 11th.—The Herald's special, dated to-day, says information indicates that the rebels have a pontoon bridge, which was sent from Martinsburg.

The Herald's Washington dispatch gives the President's reply to the Louisiana planters, who petitioned for authority to elect Federal and State officers under the present Constitution. The President does not favor it because a respectable portion of the people of Louisiana contemplate holding a Convention to amend the State Constitution. He also don't see how it will facilitate military operations in Louisiana, and it might be used to embarrass them. He concludes by saying that the people of Louisiana shall not lack an opportunity of electing Federal and State officers. The same correspondent says the question of peace has already been considered in Cabinet circles, and we are in the midst of a Cabinet crisis, growing out of the proposition of Seward for a Presidential proclamation, offering an amnesty to the people of the South, suspending the laws and confiscation act and offering a full pardon in person and property to the people of the South excepting military and civil leaders. Seward suggests that these should be allowed their property, but be ineligible to office. Bates and Blair favor the proposition in a modified form. Stanton and Chase oppose it. The President has not expressed an opinion. The same correspondent, who seems to know the object of Stephens' mission says it was the intention of Davis to offer a plan of peace including the restoration of the Union on the terms embraced in Hunter's speech, to-wit: Separate governments for North and South, but only one President.

Vicksburg, July 4.—Vicksburg surrendered after a siege of 47 days, terminating in negotiations within the last 24 hours. The terms allow officers and men to be paroled here. The former to retain their side arms, horses and personal property. The stars and stripes now float over the Court-house. We have taken over 27,000 prisoners, 152 field pieces, 30 siege guns, and 60,000 stand of arms.

Chicago, July 11.—Advices from the theater of war on the upper Potomac, seems to render it almost certain that Lee has succeeded in placing his army where, if not speedily attacked, he can withdraw safely to the Virginia side of the Potomac. Dispatches intimate that Meade will attack Lee's new position. There is, however, little ground for hope that he will succeed in damaging the rebel army.

Chambersburg, July 11.—General Lee's army, which has been occupying a strong position around Hagerstown for the last four days, moved during the night or early this morning. His army divided, one portion taking the road to Williamsport and the other moving out on the national road. Persons from Hagerstown say there are no rebels there this morning.

It is feared Lee has devised some means of escape.

Cincinnati, July 12.—Morgan's raid to-night reaches within seven miles of the Ohio river. Some bridges on the O. & M. R., between Cochran and Vernon, were destroyed to-day. The rebels are making for Aurora or Lawrenceburg. A large Federal force is after Morgan, and, with the aid of gunboats, will render his escape difficult.

Headquarters Army of Potomac, July 12.—To-day our right gradually pressed forward until we occupied Hagerstown, which he hold to-night.

The Women of Vicksburg.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Times, on the authority of Federal prisoners who were taken to Vicksburg and released, relates the following:

The women and children all remain in town although ordered at various times to leave.—On the day our men left, a morning report showed the sad fact that up to that time 119 of these unfortunates had been killed, among whom is the wife of Gen. Pemberton. The women of Vicksburg are either brave beyond ordinary mortals, or desperate in the extreme. The shells search every part of the town, and yet the children play as usual upon the streets, and the women seek no protection, but boldly promenade the public thoroughfares and attend to their household duties. In a house near the jail our men saw several ladies, who sat in groups on the piazza, moved leisurely about the house, and at times made the air melodious with voice and piano. What quality is this shown by these women? Is it heroism, desperation, or what? Death is all about them—it hisses through the air, crashes through their edifices, smites down their innocent children and themselves, and yet they unconcernedly sit, sing, chat and laugh thro' it all—through a combination of horrors that would almost make a coward of the bravest man who ever drew a sword. These things seem incredible; but they are true, for our prisoners unite in vouching for the fact, all phases of which they themselves heard and witnessed.

Rebel Prophecy, and what Came of it.—The Chattanooga Rebel was one of the Confederate journals that urged on the rebel invasion of Pennsylvania, as a matter of necessity to the decaying fortunes of the rebellion. In its issue of June 2d, it said:

We can arm and equip 50,000 of our brave veterans, who never fled from the face of an enemy, and can move unhurt, and almost unchallenged, from Cincinnati to Boston. They can lay in ashes the richest and most populous of the Northern cities, leaving behind them a belt as broad and burning as the Elliptic.—They can run a burning plowshare over the hot-beds of puling fanaticism from which sprung the Are [the Goddess of Evil] turned loose on the South. If our President will but announce and permit such a policy, he will be justified in the eyes of the civilized world, and will evoke a new spirit in the South that has never yet been called into action. Thousands of men are just now thrust out with cruelty and ignominy from Louisiana, Tennessee, Kentucky and Maryland, and they are thirsting to go back with fire and sword. Thousands more of our people, who have felt that mere defense of our own land was not the true policy, would be stirred to their inner depths by the trumpet call of invasion. We believe firmly, that myriads at the North are prepared to take refuge in our ranks from the storm of despotism that is darkening around them.

The prospect of realizing these predictions does not seem very brilliant just now.

Halleck vs. Hooker.—The rumors of a disagreement between these two Generals seems to have had a foundation. The Detroit Tribune gives currency to the following:

It is stated that Gen. Hooker was authorized by the President to report directly to him as Commander-in-Chief, and not to Gen. Halleck as General-in-Chief, or to the War Office. Hence, when he was tormented by Halleck's frequent dispatches, he replied to one reading, "What are you doing? I ask again—Halleck," thus, "I am minding my business? Cannot you mind yours?—Hooker." And to another of like purport, he answered, "Can't you let me alone?" It is said also that the knowledge of the movements of the Army of the Potomac was withheld from the Cabinet.

Gen. McClellan.—I hear statements concerning the supposed position of Gen. McClellan toward the Copperheads, which place that gentleman in a light entirely different from the one he has stood in for the past six or eight months. The General, I am told by one who knows whereof he speaks, has no sympathy whatever with that faction, and indignantly repudiates them and all their work. His method for obtaining a peace, he says, is to conquer one, and the only one he would accept must be based on terms dictated by ourselves, after the last armed rebel is put down. The Emancipation Proclamation he accepts, in all its terms and all its consequences, as a necessity of the war, and as a righteous retribution which the rebels have brought upon themselves. With that arch Copperhead, Fernando Wood, he never spoke but once, and would now scarcely recognize him by sight; and as to Ben Wood and Vallandigham, he never saw either of them to his knowledge, and certainly never held any communication with them.

I am further told that the General is on the very best of terms with the President, who is of course well advised of his strongly loyal sentiments, and is in no wise averse to placing him in active service again; and that the veteran, Francis P. Blair recently wrote a strong letter to Mr. Lincoln, urging upon him the expediency of following out the dictates of his own judgment with regard to Gen. McClellan, in spite of all opposition from whatever quarter it may come.

As I have indicated above, this statement comes to me from a source which I have the best of reasons for knowing ought to be fully and reliably posted on this subject, and I give it to your readers for all that it is worth.

I may here add, that Gen. McClellan has been strongly urged by many friends who enjoy his confidence, to come out with a public statement of his position, or at least to set himself right before the country with regard to his affiliation with the Copperhead faction, and that one of these friends went so far recently as to draw up a document relating to the matter, and to request the sanction of the General to its publicity. But to all importunities of this kind, he has vouchsafed but one reply, namely, that he was willing to "bide his time," and that he has not ceased to cherish the strong belief that he should yet be placed in a position wherein he could evince by his acts that he is still the patriot and the soldier which all of his countrymen once thought him to be.—Cor. S. F. Bulletin.

Seward and the Nigger Passports.—The following anecdote of Seward was related by Wendell Phillips, in one of his late speeches:

Our friend, Mr. Purvie, spoke of the Secretary of State giving passports to colored men. How did William H. Seward give a passport to a colored man? I will tell you. When he took office, one of the New England Senators went to him, a note in his hand, and said, 'I want a passport for a colored constituent in my town.'

'Well, you can't have one,' said Seward, 'you can't have one.'

'Why not?' said the questioner.

'Well, niggers don't have passports from this office.'

'Indeed,' said the Senator, 'do you mean to say that we indorse the Dred Scott decision?'

'Oh, no,' said Seward, 'I don't mean to say anything. I don't mean to say that we indorse or deny it. All I mean to say is that niggers do not get any passports from here.'

'Oh, yes they do,' said the Senator, 'we'll see to that.'

So he put on his hat to go up higher. But before he left, Mr. Seward turns upon him and says: 'Why (with no expletive) did you tell me this was a colored man—why did you not say that you wanted a passport for John Smith?'

'I was just reading his note as I came in, and I should not have thought of concealing it. I did not suppose the fact had any significance.'

'Well, he can't have a passport. That's all.'

'Yes he will,' was the reply.

'Sit down and write a letter, asking me for a blank passport.'

The man did so, and signed his name. Seward folded it up, put it on file as if for his defense, brought out a blank passport, and said, 'put as many niggers into it as you want to.'

That was in June, 1861.

Hints to Landlubbers.—The Vanity Fair's marine contributor gives the following hints to landlubbers:

The stern post is not an evening newspaper.

The berths on board do not necessarily add to the census.

The Hatchways are not on hen's nests.

Pugilists are not engaged to box the compass.

The boatswain does not pipe all hands with a meerschaum.

The braces are not suspenders.

The swell of the ship's side is not caused by the dropsy, nor is the taper of the bowsprit a tallow candle.

The hold is not the vessel's grip.

The trough of the sea is not dug out of the ship's log.

The crest of the wave is not an indication of its rank.

The buoy is not the captain's son.

The men are not beat to quarters with a club.

Seamen do not blast their eyes with gunpowder and a slow match.

Ships are never boarded at hotels.

The bow of a ship is not an evidence of its politeness.

A sailor's stockings are not manufactured from a yarn of his own spinning.

The sails of a ship are not made by an auctioneer, nor are the stays constructed by a milliner.

Mariners do not clean out their chests by the use of lozenges or hoarhound candy.

Pleasant Intelligence.—Boy—Ah! you and Mrs. Drone are coming to see us next week in the country?

Mr. Drone—Are we? We have heard nothing of it.

Boy—Oh, yes. Because I heard papa say to mamma, that they had some people tiresome people coming and that they might as well ask all the bores at once.

Contamination.—Chimney sweep to ditto—I say, Jim, jist look if a smut hain't bin and settled on my nose.

Yes! a nasty little speck of white plaster from that 're scaffolding.

Ugh! jist blow it 'torf, will yer?

The New York Herald says that Miss Teresa Esmonde, the Irish poetess, is about to take the oratorical field against Miss Ann Dickinson. They are both very young and very pretty, and will, doubtless, get married, and so end the campaign.

"I know I am a perfect bear in my manners," said a young farmer to his sweetheart. "No, indeed, John," said the young lady, "you have never hugged me yet. You are more sheep than bear."

A married monster said that he lately dreamed that he had an angel by his side, and upon waking up found it was nobody but his wife!

AYER'S
Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 1, 1861.

Dr. J. C. Ayer. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect,

ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,

ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

Post Office, Hartland, Liv. Co., Mich., Nov. 15, 1856.

Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

Dr. Ayer: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

Warsaw, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

Dear Sir: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

Pulaski House, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

Honored Sir: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

Senate Chamber, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

Dr. Ayer: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

The GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY!

Thorn's Compound Extract of

COPAIBA AND SARSAPARILLA.

Possesses advantages not enjoyed by any other medicine for the cure of Sexual Diseases; and which must, with an enlightened public, render it highly popular, and a desideratum long sought for in the medical world. It needs no confinement or change of diet. In its altered form of a paste it is entirely tasteless, and causes no unpleasant sensation to the patient.

It has acquired the utmost fame in almost every part of Europe. It has been examined, approved of and sanctioned by the faculty of medicine and recommended by the most eminent of the profession.

As the above valuable preparation has been extensively counterfeited by unprincipled parties in the United States, to SECURE THE GENUINE observe this LABEL, burned on and covering the bottom of each Pot:

J. B. Thorn, Chemist, London; John A. Tarrant, New York, Sole Agent for the United States.

The Stamp on each pot will also bear the names of the proprietor, and the United States Agent.

DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS will observe on each dozen package the following label:

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The increased reputation and great demand for Thorn's Compound Extract of Copaiba and Sarsaparilla, have been inducements to others to offer imitations of this valuable medicine. Venders are particularly warned of this fact that they may be on their guard, and not dispose of any impure article, calculated to injure their reputation, and destroy the merits of the original preparation; to obviate which, the subscriber, (successor to James Tarrant, by whom it was first introduced into the United States) has attached his signature to this caution, to counterfeit which is forgery.
